

RULES AND REGULATIONS OF WESTERN COLLEGE.

The Students of this Institution are expected to observe the following Rules :

1.—To be diligent in study ; punctual and prompt at prayers and recitations ; and not to leave the town during the term, unless for a short walk or ride, for recreation, without permission from some member of the Faculty.

2.—To use no profane or unbecoming language ; to abstain from all games of chance, the carrying of arms, and the use of intoxicating liquors ; to conduct themselves orderly on all occasions, and to be kind and obliging, one toward another.

3.—To observe the Sabbath and attend Church in the College Chapel every Sabbath, at such times as the Board of Trustees and Faculty may, from time to time, direct. It is also required, that the students attend all the lectures designed for the general interest of the College.

4.—At no time to engage in scuffling, running, jumping or hallooing in the halls of the buildings.

5.—Not to use tobacco in any form, in any part of the College building.

6.—To select boarding places under the direction of the Faculty, and change the same whenever the Faculty may deem it expedient for them to do so.

7.—Not to engage in giving private instruction, or receive private lessons without having obtained permission from the Faculty.

8.—Not to unite with any secret society while members of this College ; nor to engage in organizing any society whatever, without having first obtained permission from the Faculty.

9.—To attend no meeting whatever, without permission from the Faculty, except the regular weekly meetings, approved of by the Faculty. This rule is intended to have direct reference to shows, circuses, lectures, &c.

10.—The sexes not to visit each other's rooms or halls on any pretence whatever, on pain of expulsion, except by express permission from some member of the Faculty.

11.—Ladies not to receive the visits of young gentlemen, nor go into company, without special permission.

12.—Not to visit, or receive visits or calls from each other, or from residents of the town ; not to make any noise that would have a tendency to hinder students while studying ; not to engage in any play for recreation during study hours.

13.—Not to be absent from their rooms later than 9 o'clock, P. M., except when attending meetings approved of by the Faculty, and then not later than 10 P. M.

14.—Students will be required to select their studies under the direction of the Faculty, and, when once selected, will be required to pursue them, unless their teachers recommend a change.

15.—Students, occupying rooms in the College Building, will be held accountable for any injury done to rooms, and will not be permitted to repair any such injury, but will pay such damages as may be assessed by the College Treasurer.

16.—Students will not be permitted to change their rooms, or make any alterations or improvements in them, such as papering, painting, &c., or change the location of their stove, without permission from some member of the Faculty.

17.—Students will be expected to be particularly careful not to injure the College property in any way, such as by marking on the walls, doors, &c., or by whittling, or any thing calculated to mar or blemish the same.

18.—Students will sweep no dirt into the halls of the building, after 6 1-2 o'clock, A. M., nor before 9, P. M., nor throw any thing from their windows at any time.

Study hours from 5 o'clock, A. M., to 6, from 7 to 12, from 1, P. M., to 4, and from 7 to 9.

Some oral rules may, from time to time, be given the students. These will be considered as binding as the written or printed ones.
